Description

Carado A 461 – Spacious Family Motorhome with 6 Berths

The Carado A 461, first registered in 03/2020, is a spacious and practical motorhome offering a well-designed layout and accommodation for up to 6 people. With 39,629 km and a 140 HP diesel engine, it provides a comfortable and versatile basis for family holidays and longer journeys.

The sleeping area includes a double bed and bunk beds, providing a total of 6 berths. With 6 available seats, the Carado A 461 is particularly well suited to families or travelling with several passengers.

The driving area is equipped for comfortable journeys with cruise control, power steering, electric windows, driver and passenger airbags and ASR. Navigation, a reversing camera and fog lights provide additional convenience while travelling. The DAB radio, Bluetooth connectivity and CD player offer a variety of entertainment options on the road.

The living area is designed for practical and comfortable travelling. The kitchen features a gas cooker, refrigerator and freezer, while the bathroom offers a shower, washbasin, toilet and hot-water boiler. Gas heating helps provide a pleasant interior temperature when travelling in cooler conditions, and a gas detector is also fitted.

For longer trips, the 120-litre fresh-water tank and 120-litre waste-water tank provide useful capacity. A rear garage offers additional storage space, complemented by the bike rack and awning.
